

The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) - Madison Branch is seeking an Intern to begin as soon as possible. We would welcome discussing this position with you. Please reach out to us if you are interested in social, economic, environmental and gender justice advocacy.

Internship

Communications / Capacity-Building / Community Outreach

Communications

- Update the WILPF Madison website: blog posts, event reminders, pictures of WILPF-Madison in action, featured activism and articles
- Update Facebook page: events, WILPF-related articles, publicity for organizations we co-sponsor
- Update resources list on website pages as new resources become available/others expire

Capacity-Building

- Send regular updates to WILPF U.S. about what we're doing in our branch
- Collaborate with community organizations, and contribute to organization/sponsorship of community events
- Apply to WILPF and other likely grant funders to promote peace and freedom locally
- Network as a WILPF representative at community events

Community Outreach

- Create and manage resources for metallic mining and water awareness campaign, a joint project of Madison WILPF and Colombia Support Network (CSN)
- Help with publicity for WILPF events and events of supporting organizations: flyers, quarter sheets, word of mouth, internet communications
- Connect with other people and community organizations working for social justice to create bridges and spaces for individuals to take action
- Attend actions, marches, and protests as possible
- Focus on connections with students

Other Activities

- Attend WILPF Madison monthly meeting (6-8 pm 2nd Wed each month)
- Maintain log of internship activities
- Communicate regularly with Internship liaison(s) to track, troubleshoot and plan

Commitment

5-10 hours/week; 1 semester or longer (6 months to one year); no pay but great experience/resume builder/glowing references possible. Position priorities and time commitment may be modified by consensus.
